ARTICLE I
UNION RECOGNITION, MEMBERSHIP, AND SECURITY

The Employer recognizes the Union as the exclusive bargaining agent in all matters pertaining collectively to wages, hours, and conditions of employment for its non-academic employees classified as:

Maintenance Foreman

Custodian
Part-time Custodian

This recognition shall continue in full force and effect during the life of this Collective Agreement. Part-time employees shall not be eligible for health insurance; other benefits shall be prorated per years of continuous service on a half-time basis.

B. In the event that the Employer establishes a new job classification (by combining, eliminating, separating, or modifying existing job classifications) within the bargaining unit in addition to those listed above, the Employer will negotiate basic hourly rate and hours of work and conditions of employment for such new classifications with the Union before any employee is assigned to such new classification.

1.2 Non-Discrimination Against Union

The Employer agrees that there shall be no discrimination against or coercion by itself or its representatives against employees because of Union membership or stewards or officers of the Union, engaged in the negotiation of agreements, the adjustment of grievances, or the performance of related work in the interest of the Union and its members. The Employer may approve payment of wages to Union representatives for time spent in negotiations between the parties to this Collective Agreement.

1.3 Management's Inherent Right

The Union recognizes the right of the Employer to manage its' operations and to plan, direct, and control the policies and conditions of employment of its' employees insofar as such policies and conditions of employment are not inconsistent with the expressed provisions of this Collective Agreement. The Employer recognizes the Union's interest in any changes which materially affect conditions of employment of those it represents and the need to keep it informed prior to any such changes.

Among the exclusive rights of the Employer are the rights to hire, promote, demote, transfer, suspend, discharge, and discipline employees for just cause. The exercise of these rights shall be subject to the grievance procedure set forth in Article VI.

1.4 Union Security and Check-off

Upon receipt of a written authorization and assignment from an employee, the Employer agrees to deduct the regular monthly Union membership dues, and initiation fees (if applicable), from said employee's wages, in the amount and manner prescribed by the Union. The employer shall remit said deductions monthly to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Union, together with the names of the employees and the amounts transmitted on behalf of each employee.

1.5 Altercations with Students

If, in the event an employee(s) covered by the terms of this Agreement is (are) engaged in an altercation with a student(s) which requires said employee(s) to take immediate action in the best interest of the Employer, the Employer agrees that it shall provide legal support and defense of employee(s) including the furnishing of information in its possession relative to the incident, if in the Employer's judgment, the employee(s) acted with cause.

Employee(s) shall report immediately to the Employer, in writing, all cases involving altercations with students.

1.6 D.R.I.V.E.

The Employer agrees to deduct from the paycheck of all employees covered by this Agreement voluntary contributions to DRIVE. DRIVE shall notify the Employer of the amounts designated by each contributing employee that are to be deducted from his/her paycheck on a weekly basis for all weeks worked. The phrase "weeks worked" excludes any week other than a week in which the employee earned a wage. The Employer shall transmit to DRIVE National Headquarters on a monthly basis, in one check, the total amount deducted along with the name of each employee on whose behalf a deduction is made, the employee's Social Security number, and amount deducted from the employee's paycheck. ARTICLE IV

4.2 Workday, Workweek, Shift Schedule

- A. The workweek is a fixed and regularly recurring period, Monday through Friday. The full-time work schedule in the workweek shall consist of three (3) scheduled eight (8) hour and forty-five (45) minute shifts, with a forty-five (45) minute lunch break, Monday through Friday, forty (40) hour workweek. All employees or individual shift schedules shall be posted and maintained and any changes shall be made and posted no later than Friday prior to the Monday of which such change shall become effective.
- B. The workday shall consist of eight (8) hours of work with a forty-five minute lunch period, and a morning and afternoon rest period of fifteen (15) minutes.

Summer Schedule

The summer term shall begin at the discretion of the Superintendent or designee, but no later than the second Monday in June. This summer term shall consist of two (2) eight and half (8.5) hour shifts, Monday through Thursday, with the campus being closed on eight (8) consecutive Fridays. After the eight weeks of the Summer Schedule, the workday will return to normal hours and days, Monday through Friday, as stipulated in 4.2 A and B.

4.3 Job Bidding

Whenever a job opening occurs because of a newly created job or because an existing job is vacated, bargaining unit employees will be permitted to apply for such job, subject to the following:

- A. The job shall be posted, when possible, for a period of ten (10) workdays on the employee bulletin board. Applications must be in writing in a manner prescribed by management. The posting shall include job title, shift, inside or outside location, and the deadline for applications.
- B. When all other factors are determined equal by management, seniority shall be the determining factor in job selection unless the most senior applicant has previously used his/her seniority to successfully bid on an opening in which case the next most senior applicant shall receive the position.

4.4 Trip Service and Off-the-Road Work

- A. Whenever required by the Employer, drivers covered by this Collective Agreement will render trip service, being paid at the rates applicable to the hours and day or days when the service is rendered. Pay will begin at the time the driver is instructed to be ready to begin work and continue during the time he/she is actually working (driving) or waiting in a period of being available to work (drive) according to instructions given him/her by the person in charge of the trip.

- B. All employees required by the Employer to work out of town, and who are required to stay overnight, shall be paid all necessary living expenses by the Employer.

4.5 Call-Back

- A. These are defined as an official assignment of extra work not joined to an employee's regularly scheduled shift of the same workday, or on his/her free days. Time not worked taken for an employee's convenience does not break the junction of the work referred to in the preceding sentence.
- B. Employees covered by this Collective Agreement (who have completed their regularly assigned work shifts and departed from the Employer's premises) who are called back during the same workday for work additional to their regularly scheduled work shifts, or on their free days, and who report back upon the Employer's premises at the time specified in the call-back with no work being offered, shall be paid at least two (2) hours pay at overtime or premium rates, whichever is applicable. If the employee called back actually reports back upon the Employer's premises at the time specified in the call-back and does any work whatsoever for the Employer, he/she shall have a minimum guarantee of two (2) hours pay, or be paid for actual time worked, whichever is greater, at overtime or premium rates specified elsewhere herein applicable to the days and hours the call-back is obeyed or work is performed. There will be work assigned for the entire period the employee is called back.

4.6 Overtime Work

- A. Inasmuch as the Employer operates an educational institution, functioning in the public good and welfare, and services provided it by employees covered in this Collective Agreement are essential to operation of said institution, said workers, through acceptance of this instrument by their duly constituted Bargaining Agent, individually and collectively guarantee to perform overtime work whenever the Employer deems such work necessary, being paid for such work at the rates established herein.
- B. The Employer will make known to employees expected to do overtime work the probability of its being necessary as far in advance thereof as practicable, except in unforeseen cases or emergencies.
- C. The Employer's policy is to offer opportunity to do overtime work as equally as practicable among all qualified employees in the job classification and department where said work becomes necessary. If this does not produce sufficient employees to cover the Employer's requirements, the Employer will then proceed to assign sufficient bargaining unit employees, starting with the lowest seniority, to do the overtime work required.
- D. In addition to the terms expressly set forth in their 2022-2026 Collective Bargaining Agreement, the parties hereby acknowledge and agree that overtime assignments are awarded based off of a rotating list. This list changes weekly based on accumulated overtime hours of each member. Members will be listed in accordance to their rank of accumulated hours for the week. Members with the least amount of hours will be posted at the top of the list at the beginning of the week. Members with the most accumulated hours will be posted in order of the hours worked at the bottom of the list. There is a sign-up sheet for members who choose to work overtime on the weekend.

- E. Members who choose to work overtime on the weekend will be allowed to sign up for weekend overtime. Overtime will be awarded off a rotating list. Members will be given the opportunity to accept or reject weekend overtime, by indicating ok or pass next to their name on the sign-up sheet.

4.7 Full Day's Work for a Full Day's Pay

In recognition of the wage rates established herein with the Employer, the Union acknowledges its responsibility to cooperate with the Employer and to support the Employer's efforts to secure a full day's work by the employees it represents, and it will further cooperate with the Employer in eliminating unauthorized and/or unjustified, and/or unexcused absences from work, and/or other practices which adversely affect work performance by the employees it represents in this Collective Agreement.

4.8 Employee's Responsibility

Employees covered by this Collective Agreement, through its acceptance by their duly constituted Bargaining Agent, are responsible individually and collectively for fulfillment of the provisions thereof applicable to them.

4.9 Job Description

The administration will provide employees with a copy of their job descriptions based on the five classifications in the contract, upon request and will update those job descriptions as necessary.

4.10 Layoffs

- A. The Employer will give at least fourteen (14) days' notice to the employees prior to the actual dates of layoffs unless such lay-offs are caused by an emergency situation which the Employer alone may define. In such emergency situation, the Employer will notify the Union, and a conference (if the Union so desires it) will occur with the Union within twenty-four (24) hours from the time of notification of the Union to fix the actual dates of layoffs.
- B. At written request of an employee covered by this Collective Agreement and with the concurrence of the Employer, a lay-off notice may be less than fourteen (14) days established in the preceding paragraph.

4.11 Notice of Voluntary Termination

Written notice of voluntary termination must be submitted to the Employer ten (10) days before termination. If written notice is not given to the Employer, the employee shall forfeit all accrued benefits under this Agreement.

ARTICLE V
SENIORITY AND DISCIPLINE

5.1 Seniority

- A. Seniority, as the term is used herein, means the length of continuous service of any regular employee from the date of first employment by the Employer as hereinafter provided. Part-time employees will accumulate one month of seniority for each two months of continuous employment.
- B. New employees shall be regarded as probationary employees until they have acquired seniority rights. Probationary employees shall attain seniority rights when they have actually been at work in the employ of the Employer for a twelve (12) month period. There shall be no responsibility for the re-employment of probationary employees if they are laid off or discharged prior to attaining seniority rights. After twelve (12) months of employment, as above defined, the names of such employees shall be placed on the seniority roster with a service credit of twelve (12) months. The Union shall receive a seniority list upon request. Any employee covered by this Agreement, who accepts a promotion to a salaried position with the Employer, shall retain all previously accumulated seniority.
- C. In case of layoffs due to lack of work, employees shall be laid off in reverse order of seniority, providing the remaining employees are qualified to perform the work required. However, there shall be a sixty (60) day probationary period for categories other than maintenance to demonstrate competency.
- D. The rehiring procedure shall be the reverse of the lay-off procedure. When work increases, employees laid off shall be notified to report for work in order of seniority.
- E. An employee who has been laid off shall be given two (2) weeks' notice of recall, mailed to his last known address. Unless physically unable to do so, an employee must respond to such notice within three (3) days after receipt thereof, and actually report to work within two (2) weeks of the date of the notice unless otherwise mutually agreed to. In the event the employee fails to comply with the above, he/she shall lose all seniority rights under this Agreement.
- F. Seniority shall be broken by discharge, for just cause, voluntary quit, failure to report after recall, or by a lay-off for eighteen (18) consecutive months.

5.2 Disciplinary Action

When an employee covered by this Collective Agreement is involved in a warning or reprimand, suspension, or is discharged, written notice shall be given him/her and a copy of such notice shall be sent to the Union office.

5.3 Drug Testing

Should reasonable cause exist to believe that any bargaining unit employees are engaged in the use of or are under the influence of any prohibited substances, the Board shall have the right to require appropriate necessary testing of said employees.

Those members of the bargaining unit who serve as school bus drivers and who thus have direct responsibility for the care and welfare of students may be subject to any substance abuse testing program required or permitted by relevant state or federal statutes or judicial decision.

5.4 Positive Drug Testing Policy

If an employee covered under this Agreement receives a test result that is positive or diluted for any drugs or alcohol, the Board will require the said employee to immediately get retested. The retest will be a more comprehensive and detailed test (i.e. blood test). The employee will need to be accompanied by an administrator or supervisor. If the retest comes back as positive or diluted result, the employee can be terminated at the discretion of the Board.

ARTICLE VI

GRIEVANCES

6.1 Union Representatives

The Employer agrees to recognize a certified Union steward who is an employee of the school. So far as is practicable, the Union will not request the Employer to recognize any employee as a steward who has not been employed for less than one year. The Union will notify the Employer in writing of any changes in stewards.

6.2 Grievance Defined

For the purpose of this Collective Agreement, a grievance is defined as difference of opinion between the Employer and the Union or between the Employer and an employee with respect to the meaning or application of any provision of this Collective Agreement which is reduced to writing and filed for processing through the grievance procedure. Any employee may consult directly with a member of his/her immediate supervision on a matter that does not necessarily constitute a grievance. The supervisor will follow through on such matters and try to adjust them. In the event a satisfactory adjustment is not made, the matter may become a grievance and the grievance procedure may be followed. In any case, where an employee is not satisfied with respect to the disposition of the matter on which he has informally consulted with a member of his immediate supervision, the employee may submit his/her complaint as a grievance, but this must be done within seven (7) days from the occurrence of the incident, or the acquisition of direct knowledge by the employee of the condition which gave rise to the complaint, and if more than said seven (7) days elapse, the employee shall be barred thereafter from processing the complaint as a grievance.

6.3 Individual Grievances

Any employee shall have the right to present a grievance to, and discuss it with the Employer and to have such grievance adjusted, without the intervention of a steward or other representative of the Union, as long as the adjustment is not inconsistent with the terms of this Collective Agreement and provided that a steward or other representative of the Union has been given an opportunity to be present at such adjustment.

6.4 Grievance Procedure

Grievances shall be processed in accordance with the following procedure. In those cases where an employee desires to process a grievance in accordance with Section 6.3, the Union steward or other representative of the Union shall have an opportunity to be present only at the adjustment thereof.

A. Step One:

Between the aggrieved employee or employees, the appropriate Union steward, and the department head or his/her authorized representative, the grievance must be presented in writing and signed by the aggrieved employee or employees. The department head or his/her authorized representative shall have five (5) days in which to announce a decision in writing. If the grievance is to be appealed to Step Two, this must be done within five (5) days following the date of the decision of the department head, or in the event no decision is announced, within five (5) days immediately following the expiration of the five (5) day period. If no appeal has been filed within such five (5) day period, further processing shall be barred.

B. Step Two:

Between the aggrieved employee or employees, the appropriate Union steward (and an official from the Union if the Union so desires) and the school Superintendent or his authorized representative. The grievance must be appealed in writing and signed by the aggrieved employee or employees. The school Superintendent or his authorized representative shall have five (5) days in which to announce a decision in writing. If the grievance is to be appealed to Step Three, this must be done within five (5) days following the date of the decision of the school Superintendent, or in the event no decision is announced, within five (5) days immediately following the expiration of the five (5) day period. If no appeal has been filed within such five (5) day period, further processing shall be barred.

C. Step Three:

Between the aggrieved employee or employees and an official from the Union, and the Reavis High School Board of Education or its authorized representative. The grievance must be appealed in writing and signed by the aggrieved employee. The Reavis High School Board of Education, or its authorized representative, shall respond to the grievance in as timely a fashion as the schedule of Board meetings permit, but no later than five (5) days after its next regularly scheduled meeting.

6.5 Union Grievances

The Union may file a grievance on its behalf with respect to the meaning or application of/or compliance, or non-compliance, with any provisions of this Collective Agreement which names the Union and which expressly reserves to the Union as such, certain rights or imposes on it specific duties, obligations, or responsibilities. Any grievances initiated on behalf of the Union in accordance with this section shall be filed in accordance with the grievance procedure.

6.6 Procedure on Terminations

In the event of a suspension, discharge, or lay-off, the employee involved may file a grievance in Step Two of the grievance procedure based on a complaint that the suspension, discharge, or lay-off violated a provision of this Collective Agreement; provided that the grievance is filed within five (5) days from the date of notice of suspension, discharge, or lay-off, and if more than five (5) days elapse, the employee shall be barred thereafter from processing a grievance involving the suspension discharge, or layoff.

6.7 Time Limits

All time limits in this Article VI are exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and days recognized as holidays. Extensions of time may be made by mutual consent of the parties and such extensions shall be arranged or confirmed in writing.

ARTICLE VII
ARBITRATION

7.1 Arbitration Procedure

The Union will notify the Employer of its intent to submit a grievance to arbitration within 21 days of receipt of a third step denial. In the event the Union submits a grievance to arbitration, an impartial arbitrator shall be selected according to, and shall be governed by, the following procedures: The parties shall jointly request the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service to furnish a list of seven (7) available arbitrators. The Union and then the Employer shall alternately strike one name from such list and the remaining name shall be that of the impartial arbitrator.

Before submission of the grievance to the arbitrator, the Employer and the Union shall attempt to set forth in writing the specific issue to be decided and the arbitrator shall confine his/her decision to such issue. Only one issue shall be arbitrated at one time or before an arbitrator unless the parties mutually agree otherwise. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the Union, employees, and the Employer.

It is understood and agreed that the arbitrator shall have jurisdiction and authority only to interpret, apply, or determine compliance with the express provisions of this Agreement and shall not have power or authority to add to, detract from, or alter in any way such provisions. Each party shall bear its own expenses in connection with the arbitration proceedings and shall equally share the fee and expenses of the arbitrator and such other expenses as may be incurred by mutual agreement. All other expenses shall be borne by the party incurring them and neither party shall be responsible for the expenses of witnesses called by the other.

ARTICLE VIII
LIMITATIONS OF AGREEMENT

8.1 Legal Limitations

- A. No provisions or clause of this Agreement may supersede law or governmental order.
- B. Previous agreements and commitments by and between the parties, not made of record in this instrument, are agreed to be null and void.

ARTICLE IX

1. Notices of Union meetings;
2. Notices of Union elections and the results of these elections;

4. Other notices of a non-controversial nature.

10.1 Effectiveness of Collective Agreement

10.2 Changes or Amendments

In order to formulate agenda for negotiations to change or amend the provisions of this Collective Agreement, the party seeking change or amendment in the notice required by Section 1, immediately above, shall clearly and specifically communicate in writing to the other party the changes and/or amendments sought.

10.3 Status of Collective Agreement During Negotiations, and Termination Thereof

A. The parties recognize joint responsibility to provide continuing service to the end that educational processes be not interrupted. If during the course of negotiations an impasse appears likely, every effort shall be made by them to resolve the dispute.

B. Negotiations, by and between the parties, of proposed changes or amendments to the provisions of this Collective Agreement shall begin no later than thirty (30) days following notification of one party to the other that it seeks changes or amendments. Such negotiations shall continue with this Collective Agreement remaining in full force and vigor until new Agreement is reached or until this Collective Agreement is abrogated by one party giving the other ten (10) workdays written notice that it has been terminated.

10.4 No Strike Clause

The Union hereby agrees not to strike or engage in or support or encourage any concerted refusal to render full and complete service in the school district during the term of this Agreement.

10.5 No Lockout Clause

The Employer shall not engage in a lock out during the term of this Agreement.

10.6 Effective Dates of Changes and Amendments

10.7 Complete Understanding

The terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement represent the full and complete understanding and commitment between the parties. parties from the area of collective bargaining, and the understanding and agreements arrived at by the parties after the exercise of that right is set forth in this Agreement. The Union, therefore, for the life of this Agreement, voluntarily and unqualifiedly waives any right that might otherwise exist under law to negotiate over any matter during the term of this Agreement. The parties each agree that they shall not be obligated to bargain collectively during the term of this Agreement with respect to any subject or matter not specifically referred to or covered in this Agreement, even though such subject or matter may not have been within the knowledge or contemplation of either or both of the parties at the time they negotiated or signed this Agreement.
